12.3 Reviews shall be made by the immediate supervisor and they shall be approved by the next supervisory level of authority.

12.4 When an unsatisfactory performance review leads directly to dismissal or the denial of a pay increase, the review may be grieved starting at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure. All other grievances over reviews may be grieved only up to Step 3.

12.5 The standard to be applied upon employees grieving their performance reviews is whether the reviewer acted in an arbitrary and capricious manner. The individuals holding hearings at each step of the grievance procedure shall not substitute their judgment for that of the reviewer.

12.6 The State agrees that reviewers shall note special positive performance through commendatory Formal Contacts and mention positive aspects of duty performance in Employee Performance reviews.

12.7 Any conference concerning job performance and/or the presentation of performance reviews shall be limited to employees and their supervisors.

The Union shall be notified of any corrective action taken within 15 calendar days of the said notification. If the State's actions do not correct a working condition determined to be unsafe, a grievance may be filed at Step 2.

14.3 The State recognizes that staff suffer loss or damage to personal property in the line of duty, and that such loss is compensable within limits. Loss or damage to personal property is compensated for if:

14.31 The occurrence is in the line of duty, not through carelessness or forgetfulness while on duty.
